

Peak core temperature against airspeed

One curve per dissipated power; the arrow is the measured margin at the hottest solved point.